

KRISHNA

SIDE TABLE

A subtle play of shapes and transparencies, in a small table with a refined composition, consisting of three tops in extra-clear tempered glass, of different heights, each one with a symbolic drop shape. A direct reference to the paisley, the ancient motif inspired by the bud of the date palm, "the tree of life", also present as a decorative element that enriches the glass itself. The composition is supported by polished brass legs, which contribute to create a refined ensemble, able to gently adorn classic or contemporary settings.

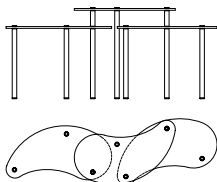

Tops in extraclear printed glass with "Varanasi" motif. Legs in polished brass.
